

WANT

To Give More Shows.

Local Clubs Are Stirring Themselves.

Bowlers Preparing For the Tournament.

Jeffries Will Meet Winner of Sharkey-Maher Match.

Athletic shows will be the next events to be tackled by the local clubs. All the Akron organizations are ambitious and anxious to make a showing, and they know that nothing brings a club so quickly and so prominently to the fore as athletic shows, properly conducted. Entertainment promoters have already been after the Mayor, with a desire to find just how he stands with reference to issuing permits for entertainments in which boxing will be a feature. Other clubs are preparing a list of possible events, having eliminated the boxing feature, and the memory of last year's successes makes them want to have repetitions.

RINKS NOT GOOD INVESTMENTS.
The members of the West End Athletic club, who have been to considerable expense to construct a rink on Wooster ave., and had barely finished their work when the thaw came, are awaiting the return of cold weather with a great deal of anxiety. The rink was flooded, and there were several days of excellent sport on its smooth surface, but now all that remains of the enterprise and hopes of the club members, is a shallow pond.

MACHINES HERE.
The North End Athletic club has received four new wall machines that were ordered some time ago, and they were placed in position Thursday. This addition to the equipment of the organization is one that has been needed badly, and one that will place the club in the front rank, among Akron organizations, for that reason.

government reception and dance, which was Akron's Wednesday night at the club with the seas, was attended by about 600 throughout, and was regarded as a great success, both financially and socially. The club will arrange another entertainment for the future, and the members believe they will be exceedingly busy for the rest of the season.

CONLEY ANXIOUS.

Ed. Conley, the Cleveland wrestler, is very anxious to meet some one who will make a match, and has issued a challenge to all comers, for meetings at 142 pounds. Conley sent a representative to Akron some time ago, for the purpose of challenging Frank Davey, of this city, but as Davey only weighs 124 pounds, he laughed at the Cleveland man.

PREDICT A BIG YEAR.

Akron horsemen predict one of the biggest years that was ever seen in racing, for next season. The performances of last year have given them faith and an intimate knowledge of the racing game such as was not theirs before. The thorough fairness of the affairs of the Northern Ohio circuit was a thing that made last year's events very creditable and pleasing to all who took part in them, and the Akron men confess that they like the game very much.

This, of course, refers to the owners who had confined their former efforts to performances at matinees of the Akron Driving club. There are, besides these, a number of men who have made their living by handling and racing horses for many years, and the latter combined with the first named gentlemen to make Akron club a strong organization.

There will doubtless be the same lack of matinee events that was noticed last year, once the racing season gets into full swing.

HANG TOGETHER.

Akron's two professional pugilists are quite fond of each other, and spend a great deal of time in each other's company. Each is able to acquire experience and knowledge of the tricks of the game from the other and their meetings and walks and talks have largely to do with wallops and jabs, swings and counters and the gentle art of asphering countenances. The great physical contrast between the two men is, of course, most noticeable when they are together, and Jim Jeffries, lined up as big Gus Ruhlin, looks exceedingly frail by comparison.

JEFF AFTER THE WINNER.

Jim Jeffries will meet the winner of the Sharkey-Maher bout, which will take place at Philadelphia. Jeffries has stated to a Denver fight pro-motor that he would consent to such a match, to take place in Denver, in March or April.

AFTER THE MONEY.

The members of the Akron teams who will attend the national bowling tournament at Buffalo next month, believe that they will stand an excellent show of landing some of the prize money that has been offered. They compare their scores with some of those made by the crack teams of the country in competition, and are well satisfied with the result. Nearly a month must elapse before the clubs leave here for Buffalo, and in that time they will practice and become as proficient as possible. In order that the best results may be had when they meet in tournament. Individual bowlers are as confident as the five men teams, and the later class, it is believed, will show the best scores for the Akron representatives.

PASSED

To the Great Beyond.

Senator Sewell Died at His Home Friday Morning.

Camden, N. J., Dec. 27.—United States Senator Wm. J. Sewell died at his home here at 9:30 a. m. today. He suffered from diabetes complicated with stomach and heart trouble. Senator Sewell's illness has extended over a period of two years, but his condition was not considered serious until about a year ago. His constant attention to the duties devolving upon him in official capacity resulted, in 1899, in a collapse. A trip to Europe was beneficial and he soon was recovered sufficiently to resume his duties. Toward the end of the last session of Congress he developed a complication of diseases, and acting on the advice of his physicians, again visited various health resorts in Europe, upon his return, his condition showing no improvement. Senator Sewell went to Asheville, N. C., where he remained two months. He returned to his home about four weeks ago and for a few days a slight improvement in his condition was noted. Within the past two weeks a succession of sinking spells greatly weakened him and compelled his physicians to abandon the hope of prolonging his life. When death came the Senator's family gathered at his bedside. He had been unconscious for some time before the end.

Mr. Thomas Wingard, of Niles, and Miss Rose Miller, of Barborton, were married Friday morning by Justice J. R. Campbell.

YOUNG MRS. ROCKEFELLER DID NOT FORGET HER BOYS.

Each One of the Thirty Received a Gift.

New York, Dec. 27.—Mrs. J. D. Rockefeller, Jr., last Sunday promised each of the boys in her Sunday School class in the Fifth ave. Baptist church that Santa Claus would surely not forget them, and he did not. There are now thirty boys in the class. When Mrs. Rockefeller took it there were but three. Nearly all of the boys are DROP Of 20 Feet Into Water.

Experience of Chas. Aldrick, Thursday.

"He Bit Off One of My Finger Nails."

Sudden Exit of Two Men Accused of Vagrancy.

"This is the first time since—" "The last time," interrupted the Mayor, while Chas. Aldrick was trying to explain himself clear of a workhouse sentence.

"But I fell," began Aldrick again. "That's right, Your Honor," affirmed Prisonkeeper Washer. "He had a terrible fall—fell over a 20-foot embankment into the Little Cuyahoga, in East Akron."

Aldrick was arrested, Thursday afternoon, by Officer Bruner, who hastened to his side, expecting to pick him up dead. "He was driving a cart, in the vicinity of the 'Black' mill, on Case ave.," said Officer Bruner, "and was intoxicated. When near the edge of the steep, almost perpendicular bank of the Little Cuyahoga, at the mill, he toppled off the cart, rolled over the bank, down into the water. The distance of the fall was 20 feet, but Aldrick was hurt but little."

About the only evidence of injury to Aldrick's person was a very black eye. But it was stated that this injury was received in another way. Although Aldrick has been in court frequently of late, the Mayor was lenient, and allowed to go with $2 and costs.

Things were mixed in a lively manner in an East Market st. saloon, Thursday evening. As souvenirs of the mix-up, Edward Cooper has a very dark and much swollen eye, and Edward Seaton has a crippled finger. "He bit the nail clean off," declared Seaton. These young men were both in Mayor's court, on charge of tampering with the peace and dignity of Akron by fighting. They were arrested by Officer Bruner, but hearing of the case was postponed to Dec. 30.

"Come quick, partner, for fear he changes his mind," said Wm. Wallace, to James Shanks, and then both hustled from the Mayor's presence, and put out for the railroad. They had one hour in which to leave the city. "And never come back, either," added the Mayor.

"I never will," said Wallace. "Nor I—I should say not," agreed Shanks.

They were arraigned on charge of clinging to a B. & O. train, having been arrested by Station Officer Harris, at the Union depot early Friday morning. The defendants were given the alternative of leaving suddenly, or spending 30 days in the Canton workhouse. They are not now in our midst.

"You're talking away back, but I'm dealing with the present," is the language used by James Pomeroy to attract the Mayor from a sentence of 30 days, alleged to have been imposed and suspended pending good behavior. "Will you go back to the Soldiers' Home, at Sandusky, at once, if I give you another chance?" asked the Mayor, and James said he would.

"All right, I'll merely fine you $2 and costs."

Dan Egan, arraigned on charge of vagrancy, was given all day to find work. If he doesn't succeed, he must leave Akron. Such are the stipulations in the contract between him and the Mayor.

On charge of intoxication, Perry Smith was fined $2 and costs.

WOMEN WON.

The New Constitution of Methodist Church Approved.

Chicago, Dec. 27.—The new constitution of the Methodist Episcopal church, which was adopted at the last General Conference in May, 1900, and referred to the various conferences, has been approved by the three quarters vote required—ayes, 8,196; nays, 2,513.

The element which opposed the new organic law because it provided for the admission of women as delegates to the general conference met with defeat. One hundred and twenty-one annual conferences voted on the question, a total of 10,709 ballots being cast by delegates. The new constitution gives women the right to sit as delegates in the general conference; gives laymen's electoral meetings authority to vote on constitutional questions, and changes the vote necessary in the general conference to amend the constitution from three-fourths to two-thirds.

Wanted Chickadees.

(Special Correspondence.)
Cuyahoga Falls, Dec. 27.—Allie Ostrander was arrested, Christmas eve, on complaint of Rothig Bros., butchers, who accused him of having attempted to break into a chicken coop owned by them. Mayor Russell gave Ostrander a hearing, Thursday morning, and then bound him over to Common Pleas Court.

NICE LETTER

Written by President Roosevelt.

He Will Probably Preside Over Olympic Games.

Paris, Dec. 27.—Baron Coubertin, president of the Olympic games, has just received a personal letter from President Roosevelt in reply to the invitation sent to the latter asking him to become president of the Olympic games to be held in Chicago during the year 1904. Mr. Roosevelt says he will lay the whole matter before the Cabinet, and that so far as he himself is concerned, he takes the keenest interest in the undertaking and will do his utmost to make the meeting at Chicago as successful as the last one held at Athens.

Mr. Roosevelt's letter is couched in the warmest terms. He referred to Baron Coubertin's works on sports, with which he showed acquaintance. Baron Coubertin, was much touched by Mr. Roosevelt's kindly reference to himself, and said the President's acceptance would, in view of his enthusiastic support of all manly sports, cause the greatest pleasure to all concerned in the games.
